I support the AOPA postion using driver's licenses, with picture, as identification supporting pilots license identification. The approach being proposed by the FAA is added and unnecessary paper work.